Bông, the lo-fi study foal

A chibi baby horse, sitting, with a big head and small round body: pastel-pink coat, cream blaze and muzzle, fluffy rose mane with a little tuft on top, glossy brown eyes, coral blush, cream-and-rose headphones with a tiny horse-head emblem, and a rose plaid scarf. No horn, no rainbow, no body symbols. Every pose has a transparent background (the checkerboard shows it).

Practice

A subject + verb clause is the simplest complete sentence in English. It tells us who or what (the subject) and what they do (the verb). Some verbs need nothing after them: She smiled. The bus arrived.

Câu đơn giản nhất = Ai / Cái gì + làm gì. Tiếng Anh luôn cần đủ cả hai phần.

USE WHEN you make simple statements about actions and events. · Dùng khi kể về hành động, sự việc đơn giản.

STRUCTURE · Cấu trúc

Subject + Verb

The subject is usually a noun or pronoun. The verb tells us the action or state.

He / She / It + Verb-s / -es

In the present simple, add -s or -es after he, she, it and singular nouns. – Ngôi thứ ba số ít thêm -s/-es.

Subject + Verb + (place / time)

You can add where or when – but the sentence is already complete without it.

EXAMPLES · Ví dụ

1. I run every morning.

Subject "I" + verb "run" – a daily habit. · Tôi chạy bộ mỗi sáng.

2. The baby cried.

Subject "The baby" + verb "cried" – a finished action; nothing else is needed. · Em bé đã khóc.

3. She works at a bakery.

He / she / it → "works" with -s. · Cô ấy làm việc ở tiệm bánh.

4. Prices went up last year.

Subject "Prices" + verb "went up"; "last year" only adds time. · Giá cả đã tăng vào năm ngoái.

5. We live near the river.

Subject "We" + verb "live"; "near the river" adds place. · Chúng tôi sống gần sông.

COMMON MISTAKES · Lỗi thường gặp

She ^{goes} go to school by bus.

He / she / it needs -s!
Ngôi thứ 3 số ít: thêm -s / -es.

^{It rains} Rains a lot in Huế in October.

English always needs a subject – even for weather!
Không bỏ chủ ngữ: dùng "It".

The children ^{are} are very happy today.

Adjectives aren't verbs – add be.
Tính từ cần "to be" đi kèm.

The Night Bus to Đà Lạt

Vietnamese translation

Hiện bản dịch

1 Last December, Minh decided to visit Đà Lạt for the first time. Flights were expensive during the holidays, so he booked a seat on the night bus from Saigon. The bus left at ten o'clock, and most passengers fell asleep before it reached the edge of the city.

Tháng Mười Hai năm ngoái, Minh quyết định đến Đà Lạt lần đầu. Vé máy bay dịp lễ rất đắt nên anh đặt một chỗ trên xe khách đêm từ Sài Gòn. Xe chạy lúc mười giờ, và hầu hết hành khách đã ngủ trước khi ra khỏi thành phố.

2 Minh stayed awake for a while. He watched the lights of small towns pass by the window and listened to a podcast. Around two in the morning, the road became narrow and winding as the bus began to climb into the mountains. He was tired, but the sharp turns kept waking him up.

Minh thức tỉnh một lúc. Anh nhìn thấy ánh đèn của thị trấn nhỏ lướt qua cửa sổ và nghe podcast. Khoảng hai giờ sáng, đường trở nên hẹp và quanh co khi xe bắt đầu leo núi. Anh mệt mỏi nhưng những cái rẽ gấp của đường đã thức anh tỉnh giấc.

3 When the sun came out, the landscape completely changed. Instead of rice fields, Minh saw hills covered in thin mist. The air coming through the window was cool – almost cold. Minh reluctantly put on the jacket his mother had packed for him.

Khi mặt trời lên, cảnh vật bên ngoài đã hoàn toàn thay đổi. Thay cho ruộng lúa là những rừng thông phủ sương mỏng. Không khí lùa qua cửa sổ mát lạnh – gần như lạnh. Minh miễn cưỡng mặc chiếc áo khoác mà mẹ đã xếp cho anh.

4 The bus arrived at seven. A street vendor near the station was selling hot soy milk and grilled rice paper. Minh bought both, sat on a small plastic stool, and looked at the hills. The trip had been long, but the view was breathtaking.

Xe đến nơi lúc bảy giờ. Một người bán hàng rong gần bến xe đang bán sữa đậu nành nóng và bánh tráng nướng. Minh mua cả hai, ngồi trên chiếc ghế nhựa nhỏ và ngắm đồi núi. Chuyến đi thật dài, nhưng khung cảnh thì đẹp đến ngỡ ngàng.

1 Last December, Minh decided to visit Đà Lạt for the first time. Flights were expensive during the holidays, so he booked a seat on the night bus from Saigon. The bus left at ten o'clock, and most passengers fell asleep before it reached the edge of the city.

Tháng Mười Hai năm ngoái, Minh quyết định đến Đà Lạt lần đầu. Vé máy bay dịp lễ rất đắt nên anh đặt một chỗ trên xe khách đêm từ Sài Gòn. Xe chạy lúc mười giờ, và hầu hết hành khách đã ngủ trước khi ra khỏi thành phố.

2 Minh stayed awake for a while. He watched the lights of small towns pass by the window and listened to a podcast. Around two in the morning, the road became narrow and winding as the bus began to climb into the mountains. He was tired, but the sharp turns kept waking him up.

Minh thức tỉnh một lúc. Anh nhìn thấy ánh đèn của thị trấn nhỏ lướt qua cửa sổ và nghe podcast. Khoảng hai giờ sáng, con đường trở nên hẹp và quanh co khi xe bắt đầu leo núi. Anh mệt mỏi nhưng những khúc cua gắt cứ làm anh tỉnh giấc.

3 When the sun came out, the landscape completely changed. Instead of rice fields, Minh saw hills covered in thin mist. The air coming through the window was cool – almost cold. Minh reluctantly put on the jacket his mother had packed for him.

Khi mặt trời lên, cảnh vật bên ngoài đã hoàn toàn thay đổi. Thay cho ruộng lúa là những rừng thông phủ sương mỏng. Không khí lùa qua cửa sổ mát lạnh – gần như lạnh. Minh miễn cưỡng mặc chiếc áo khoác mà mẹ đã xếp cho anh.

4 The bus arrived at seven. A street vendor near the station was selling hot soy milk and grilled rice paper. Minh bought both, sat on a small plastic stool, and looked at the hills. The trip had been long, but the view was breathtaking.

Xe đến nơi lúc bảy giờ. Một người bán hàng rong gần bến xe đang bán sữa đậu nành nóng và bánh tráng nướng. Minh mua cả hai, ngồi trên chiếc ghế nhựa nhỏ và ngắm đồi núi. Chuyến đi thật dài, nhưng khung cảnh thì đẹp đến ngỡ ngàng.
